Compliments of the Senior Class

HAYSI GIRL HONOR STUDENT AT E & H

Miss Virginia Miller of Haysi is on the dean's list at Emory and Henry College for last semester. Miss Miller, who is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs Charles Miller, is a freshman. She exceeded the required avereage of B by making straight A's on all subjects except physical education.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rush and children are visiting relatives in New Jersey.

Misses Betty Fuller and Barbara Davis left recently for Detroit where they will be employed this summer.

Nancy Ball returned to Berea College last Sunday to attend summer classes and assist at In-

Foreword

As you turn through the pages of your 1954-1955 yearbook we hope that we have been able to bring back to your memory the years spent at Haysi High; recalling the happiest hours, the valued friends, and the best-loved scenes.

With sincere wishes, here is your 1955 THUNDERBOLT.

Dedication

To our helpful and understanding teacher, class sponsor, and friend who has rendered every service possible to uphold the traditions of the Senior class; to one of the most devoted and loveable teachers, we, the graduating class of 1955 proudly dedicate this year's "Thunderbolt" to our very own

Mrs. Elaine T. Duty.

Principal's Message

Thank you so kindly for the space you have given me in your annual.

May I congratulate each of you on your splendid cooperation. It has been a pleasure to serve you these past five years. If I can be of service to you in the future please let me know.

I am sure this year's issue of the Thunderbolt will be one of the best. I know the faculty and our friends will join me in congratulations to this year's annual staff.

Best wishes for your future success,

I am,

Class Prophecy

"Man your stations!!" "Three minutes until take-off," said Bobby Willis. These are the words I hear so I rush to take my position at the tail of the rocket. Ten, nine, eight, seven, six, five, four, three, two, one, zero. We then zoom into outer space on our mission to the moon. After we have settled down to an easy pace, we then adjust our instruments to the right degree. Clinton Fuller, our captain, shouts back for us to unfasten our safety belts, Carl Yates is manning our ray guns with the aid of Onsby Yates and Sammy Childress. Von Shore Sutherland and Norman Grizzle are kept busy peering into the radar screen. They are watching a space show starring those four all time greats Rose Sutherland and husband and Juanita Powers and husband. Lois Hamon, Jeanette Sykes, Betty Sue Mullins and Betty Fuller are doing that new dance the Moon-bo. They are dancing to the band of Imogene Dye with Edna Mae Sykes on the drums.

I then pick up a newspaper published by Bobby Rasnick and read the headlines, Lois Wright's husband has broken the world's record of breaking dishes. Beulah Mullins and husband are now buying a space ship for taking a vacation to Mars. In the society page Lois Rose and husband have now retired to their Rocket Ranch on Mercury. I lay the paper aside and then turn on my space radio and hear the life of D. C. Sutherland written by Virginia Miller. I turn to another station and hear Space Hep Cat Show with Garmon Mullins, Raymond Rakes, and Kirby Mullins playing real hot Jupiter numbers. Barbara Davis, Sue Puckett, Betty Sutherland, and Ruby Edwards are singing "The Naughty Pluto of Shady Mars."

I turn off the radio and then gaze out the window at the passing scenes. I see, on the top of Venus, Paul Charles and Nancy Hall's modern cottage with Ruth Rose, their maid, sprinkling star dust on the Milky Way. Glenna Yates, Thelma Fuller, Shelia Yates, and Gladys Edwards were working on Uranus for those great star manufactures Dorse Counts, Farley Deel, and Ronald Branham. We go a few moon miles more when I see Rose Mary Sykes, Bobbie Jean Smith, and Josephine Artrip shooting meteors at James Mullins and Asie Viers. Then we come around the corner of Saturn and almost had a collision with another rocket ship driven by Blanche O'Quin with Rita Counts, Shelba Epling, and Greta Turner in the back seat holding on for dear life.

We have now reached the Moon and there we see Avery Barton and Lowell Bartley feeding their mice green cheese. Donald Sutherland gives us our landing instructions and we make a safe landing. I pick up my medical bag and step outside on the Moon to wait for my next assignment.

Last Will and Testament

We, Betty Sutherland and Sue Puckett, will our looks and brains to Mary Sue and Charlotte. I, D. C. Sutherland, will my ability to talk teachers out of things to Frank Ratliff so he won't have to stand in the office so much. We, Don Sutherland and Clinton Fuller, will our ability to play hooky to anyone who can get away with it and our good looks to Jack Hay and Glen Anderson because they need it. I, Rose Sutherland, will my flirty ways to Jane and Bobby Fuller. I, Vonshore Sutherland, will all my nasty ideas and habits to Jack Hay. I, Edna Mae Sykes, will my love for chemistry to anyone who wishes to experiment without equipment. We, Lois Hamon, Shelba Epling, and Jeanette Sykes, will all that we leave to all the Juniors. I, Asie Viers, will my ability to speak French to Christine Willis. I, Bobby Willis, unlike the rest of my stupid classmates intend to take everything that I can get my hand on with me. I, Carl Yates, will my flirtatious gestures to anyone who will accept. I, Glenna Yates, will all my love for HHS to Gay Yates and Joyce Davis. I, Shelia Yates, will my flirty ways to my sister, Sharon, who really doesn't need them. I, Onsby Yates, will my ability to stay out of trouble to Chester Yates. I, Avery Barton, will my love for basketball to Gregory Barton and my love for the girls to anyone who can get them. We, Ruth Rose and Nancy Hall, will our typing books to Roger and Gary Rose in hopes that they don't have the same teacher we have. I, James Mullins, will my love for beautiful women to Johnny Anderson if he can stand them. I, Juanita Powers, will my History book to my daughters, Myra and Linda. We, Rosemary Sykes and Bobbie Jean Smith, will our silly giggle to Mr. Stacy Davis in hopes that he won't be so grouchy throughout the remainder of this year. I, Robert Rasnick will my ability to work algebra to Shirley Sutherland. I, Blanche O'Quinn, will my meanness and love for driving a car to Anne Miller. I, Beulah Mullins, will my love to my daughter, Deborah Gail and my English Book to Janice and Barbara Jean Mullins. I, Garmon Mullins, will my talent of music to Paul David Wright. We, Lois Rose and Virginia Miller, will our sophistication to Anne Miller and Barbara Owens so they may use it next year. We, Ruby Edwards and Greta Turner, will our ability to get into trouble and our love for the service men to any one that wants them. I, Thelma Fuller, will my love for all boys to Doris Willis. I, Josephine Artrip, will my love for all good looking boys to Nell Stallard. I, Lowell Bartley, will my love for fast women and beautiful cars to anyone that can afford them. I, Ronald Branham, will my shyness around girls to Glenn Anderson. I, Paul Charles, will my love for sports to anyone who wants them. We, Sammy Childress and Farley Deel, will our love to chase girls in the hall to anyone who thinks they can get by with it. I, Dorse Counts, will my ability to love women to Conley Rasnick. I, Rita Counts, will my love for basketball to my sister Paula and my love for Jimmy to myself. I, Barbara Davis, will my shorthand book to Joyce Davis and Gay Yates. I, Imogene Dye, will my love for school and music to everybody. I, Gladys Edwards, will my bashfulness to my sister, Juanita, because we all know she needs it. We, Betty S. Mullins and Betty Fuller will our love for tall, dark, and handsome men to Shirley Fuller and Nancy Fuller.

Girls' Basketball Team

The girls' basketball squad reported for duty as usual in the early fall. All the girls were very interested in making a good and undefeatable team for this season.

As the season progressed the team showed much improvement. Even though the team hasn't won every game, it has never been outplayed, regardless of how much the opposition scored. Their coach, Miss Lou Ratliff, is very interested in the girls and not only for their playing good basketball but also for their sportsmanship. With a little more experience next year we hope to have an undefeated team.

Boys' Basketball Team

The boys' basketball team this year is better or as good as any team we have had in the past years. Our team has won games with more ease this year than was ever displayed before, and when they lose, it is with a fighting spirit that lasts throughout the game.

We can rest assured that our team will be in the county tournament if they keep going at the rate they are going now.

The first team players consist of: Guards, Jack Hay and Billy Kilgore; Forwards, Lowell Bartley and Avery Barton; Center, Glenn Anderson.

CONGRATULATIONS

AND

BEST WISHES

TO THE

SENIOR CLASS

FROM THE Faculty

HAYSI HIGH

Dear Mom and Dad:

We use this means of expressing our gratitude to you for the many sacrifices which you have made and the many pleasures, joys, and advantages you have made possible for us during our high school years. We shall always remember these years as some of the most enjoyable of our lives.

This book records some of the finest and most memorable events of our high school days.

We hope you enjoy it as much as we have enjoyed compiling it.

Lovingly,

Your Son and Daughter
